
First Aid Policy

Our qualified first aiders, where to find first aid kits and the accident book, and how first aid is given.

Southbourne School of English, Bournemouth complies with relevant legislation for First Aid for its employees and students during normal working hours.

First aiders

There are two qualified and appointed first aiders:

- Shane Rynhart, Director of Studies
- Charlie Harris, Welfare Officer

Our secondary first aider is Francesca Silvestre, Accommodation Officer.

The first aiders are responsible for administering First Aid at Work in accordance with their training. They are also responsible for checking and ordering supplies for the first aid kits.

Appointed first aiders are able to apply a plaster and call an ambulance. No other first aid will be given.

First aid kits

First aid kits are located in the Accommodation and Welfare Office and the Cafeteria.

Accident book

The accident book, for recording accidents on site at Southbourne School of English, Bournemouth, is in the Accommodation and Welfare Office.

Blood and spillages

The first aiders will wear appropriate protection (latex gloves) while dealing with blood or other bodily fluids.
